Captain ERIC PONTOIRE, French National

French Licensed 200, Sailing Captain Eric Pontoire was born in France and raised in the West coast in Brittany. Eric has been sailing for over 30 years. A sportsman by passion, Eric has a Master degree in Science and Technology of Sport and started as Teacher in several sailing schools and sport centers. Following his family tradition and passion for the sea, he soon moved to Yacht Charter business and passed his Brevet de Capitaine 200 "Patron Plaisance Voile", the French equivalent of Yacht Master and spent 10 years successfully as Captain for Yacht Charter and Flotilla Charter Fleet in France, Greece, Tunisia and eventually managing Yacht Charter fleets as Base Manager. Moving ashore led him to Yacht Brokerage and he became Sales Manager for several Yacht Dealers on the Atlantic Coast, selling and managing Yachts for their owners. On the occasion of a professional trip to Thailand he fell in love with the country and its people and decided to move to Phuket.

Looking forward to get back at sea, in 2010 he accepted a job as First Mate on a 110 Ft Luxury Motor Yacht Charter based in Phuket. He sailed extensively in the Andaman Sea and acquired a new experience working as Super Yacht Crewmember. He was more particularly in charge of all water sports and water toys handling. Eric is an excellent sportsman and reached the French National championship of Funboard and Kite surf. With his experience as a trainer he initiated the guests to Water ski or Seadoo and supervised safety for all sport activities. When the opportunity to be Captain of a Luxury Sailing Yacht became available, Eric naturally returned to his passion: being Captain of a Sailing boat but with a whole new background in the high-end service. He has a certificate for First Aid (French Diploma BNPS) and was a Fireman volunteer. Capt. Eric speaks French, English, Spanish and Greek.
